Bird Watching Festival - Registration Open

Registrations for the 13th edition of the Sagres Bird Watching & Nature Activities Festival opened today.

The biggest nature event in Portugal is back, from October 1st to 5th, and brings dozens of activities for all tastes.

Did you know that it's not only migratory birds that you can see in Sagres in October? Cetaceans and dragonflies (yes, you read that right!) also migrate.

Come and discover this and much more at a free event.

Visit www.birdwatchingsagres.com and register now!

Volunteers wanted!

Almargem needs you! In the coming months we will be attending some events, but for that we need your help at our stand. If you have a few hours available, want to know more about the association's work and support the sale of merchandising, contact us.

Your support is essential!
